A numerouslyattended reception was held at Lady Wenlock's house in Portland Place. The honeymoon is to be spont at Knulsworth. The presents are numerous and costly. Their Majestics the King and Queen persented a beautiful ernament in the form of a bird of paradise, set with diamonds. Earl Lytton was born in India during his father's Viceroyalty.

The Will of Cecil Rhodes. April 5.- It is estimated that Mr Cecil Rhodes' will disposes of six millions sterling. The papers publish panegyries of Mr Rhodes, declaring that the will imperishably preserves all the best in, perhaps, the greatest personality of our time. He was one of the first dreamers and thinkers of any ago. The Times and Telegraph say he furnishes a modern parallel of Casar who made the Commonwealth his heir. The American press regards Mr Cecil

London, April 4 .- Brigadier Kitchener reports from Driekuil, in the Western Transvaul, that he sent a force on the 31st to reconnoitre the Hart River, when the force struck the track of guns which they followed for eight miles, making a running fight. On emerging in the open plain, large Boer reinforcements advanced on our flanks, forcing our troops to occupy hastily-entrenched positions. Close quarters' fighting ensued till the enemy was repulsed on all sides. Generals De-la-Rey and Kemp vainly Reuter's Pretoria correspondent states that the Boer losses in the same action were 187. The casualty list shows that in

THE EXECUTION OF AUS-TRALIAN OFFICERS.

London, April 3 .- It was the Australian Licuis, Morant, Handbook, Picton and Witton, who were charged with the murder of Beer prisoners. The sheeting was not denied, but it was contended that the accused noted under orders obtained from Captain Hant, who was afterwards killed and mutilated. After Capt. Hunt's death, Morant showed no mercy. Witton disclaimed any active part in the murders, against which he and Picton protested He mentioned that a wounded Boer was shot without a court-martial, after consultation between Handcock and Morant, and that subsequently other Boers were shot. Morant and Handcock were executed, Witton sentenced to penal servitude for life, and Picton cashiered. It was alleged that the murdered Boers were train-wreckers. April 4. - The official statement regarding the execution of officers confirms the previous account. The accused belonged to the Colonial Corps Bushvoldt Carbineers. Major Lenahan, Commanding the Corps, has been found guilty of culpable neglect, and has been ordered to Australia, the Corps being previously disbanded.

April 5.—The consensus of opinion in Australia is that Lieutenants Handcock and Morant, who were court-martialed and shot for shooting Boer prisoners, fully merited

Inamote appended to the above telegrams, the Times of Ceylon says :- The Bushveldt Carbineers exist no longer. The Corps has been disbanded and its commanding officer cashiered. A study of the Army lists for the first three months of this year provides food for reflection in connection with this sad business of the Australian officers. In January, the Bushveldt Carbineers appear among the Colonial Contingents, with Major R. W. Lenchan in command, and the names of the two officers executed, Lieuts. H. H. Morant and P. J. Handcock, with Lieut. H. Picton; who was cashiered, duly among the officers. There is no officer of the name of Witton in the Army List, and this is probably a mistake in telegraphing for Lieut, G. R. Ditton, a member of the Bushveldt Carbineers. Lieur. Handcock was the voterinary officer of the Corps. In February's Army List, we read Bushveldt's Carbineers, title changed to Picfersburg Light Horse,' where we see Major Lenchan still in command, and all the officers the same as in the previous month. There is no explanation of the change in designation. The March Army list, however, shows what terrible havoc the disclosures and court-martials played in the officering of the Pietersburg Light Horse. Of fifteen officers in February only one, Lieut. S. Midgelly, remains in the Corps in March! And of the other fourteen, the names of only two are retained at all in the Army List. This increases more than ever the mystery of the business, and points to cashierings or permissions to resign beyond those telegraphed. It would seem that practically the whole of the officers were implicated in the affair. The officers retained in the Army List are Captain H. S. Mortimer (whose | Akacrity name appears as Lieut, in the 2nd New South Wales Mounted Rifles), and Lieut Algerina A. W. Lewis, who now belongs to the Canadian Scouts. Our telegram to-day refers | Argonaut to the disbanding of the Bushveldt Carbi- Blenheim neers and the cashiering of the command- Bramble ing officer. Jathis decision only now being Britomart communicated to the public, and did it | Cressy have effect a month or so ago, before the Cherub officers of the Corps were changed? It Eclipse would be interesting to know this. The Endymion present commanding officer of the Pieters- Esk burg Light Horse is Major H. d'E. Espiègle Vallancey, D.S.O. (Captain of the Argyll Fame and Sutherland Highlanders). The four Fearless lientenants, in addition to Midgelly, all Firebrand make their appearance in March for the *Glory first time in the Army List. The Pay- Goliath master is a transferred Captain, and the Handy Adjutant of the Contingent is a 15th Hart Hussars Captain named Bald, who in Humber February was second in command of the Iphigenia Imperial Yeomanry.

The days of mythological beliefs have This is an era of science—a mat- Otter ter-of-fact age. The darkness of igno- Phomix rance and superstition is giving way to the Piquo penetrating light of modern science-the Rambler revelation of facts. Modern science has | Rinaldo discovered that the best medicinal cod liver Robin oil, in its analysis, may be separated into Rosario two distinct parts—one the clarified oil; Sandpiper the other, a mass of certain semi-solid sub- Snipe stances, known as extractives. The oil is Swift not materially different from other fixed Taku eils and has little or no medicinal value. Talbot On the other hand, the extractives are Tamer peculiarly active, and the conclusion cannot Teal be avoided that to the presence of these Terrible active principles cod liver oil owes its Te- Tweed putation as a remedy. No other oil has Vestal such a reputation. No other oil has such Waterwitch constituents. The extractives hold the same | Whiting relation to cod liver oil that quinine sustains to crade cinchona bark. They are the Woodcock' curative essence of cod liver oil. When taken as they may be freed from the vile, unnecessary oil, their curative value is greatly increased, for they are not hampered by the presence of the noxious fat. Upon this scientific fact.

Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil is based. It represents all the curative properties of the best cod liver oil in a vinous preparation. It also contains the best form of iron, making it also an ideal iron tonie. Wholesale from A. S. Watson & Co., Ltd., Hongkong.

Li Hung-chang's Son Dead.

The death has occurred at Peking, on the 5th inst., from diphtheria of Marquis Li, the eldest son and heir of the late first Marquis Li Hung-chang, at the age of forty. He leaves a son to inherit the title and vast would left by the first Marquis. Before inheriting the title the last Marquis Li was known as Li Ching-she. The new Marquis is Li Kuo-chich : he is twenty-one years of age.

At a special meeting of the Shanghai Branch of the China Association on the Goods per Bendedi undelivered after this 15th inst., a resolution favouring Sir James | nese visitors to the City Hall Library, and import tariff to 15 per cont. was made by the Museum for the week ending April 20. the Chairman (Mr J. l. Scott) and seconded by Mr A. M. Marshall. A counter resolution by Mr E. S. Little, seconded by Mr Probst, was defeated by the Chairman's easting vote in a meeting of about fifty members. Upon the Chairman's original motion being put to the meeting, it was 2.15 p m. - Auction of Japanese Caries, lost by 24 votes to 21, so that, apparently, the meeting arrived at no definite decision. What is the Hongkong Branch doing?

Death of Mr J. Kennedy.

Mr John Kennedy, the well-known proprietor of the Horse Repository at Causeway Bay and of Hongkong Dairy, died on Saturday evening at his residence as February last and was then in the best of health. He took ill about a fortnight wel. ago, but, on Saturday morning was quite cheerful. Later in the day he had a fit, and this, we learn, was rapidly followed by other two, the last leaving him so weak that he expired. The cause of death was certified to be diabetes coma. The deceased, who was 57 years of age, was a native of Aberdeenshire, and arrived in this Colony 29 years ago. He commenced business in a the extensive business now familiarly known as 'Kennedy's.' Although of a somewhat rotiring disposition, he had a large circle of acquaintances and was universally esteemdeepest sympathy is felt.

The Regulation of Missionaries.

We take the following paragraph from the China Gazette :- The Sin Wan-pao says hat as the Chinese Government attaches reat importance to the question of mission avies in inland places it has commanded Sheng Kun-pao and Lu Hai-huang to compile a set of regulations so as to check any further troubles on this head and both the commissioners have decided to put the ollowing clause in the new treaty; All Chinese subjects either common people or converts shall be under Chinese law and missionaries or those who are propagating administration of the law, nor are they victories and Oford of 9: allowed to take any part in any litigation between converts and the common people. In case missionaries or those whose who are engaged in propagating religion in inlaud places buy houses or land (in the interior) such land or houses shall be exclusively used for religious purposes and for no other purpose, and buildings shall foe in the same style as Chinese buildings. The local officials shall have the right of entering churches and investigating what is going on at any time. has expressed his approval of the proposed egulations, and of adopting the same. If the report be true it will certainly be immensly beneficial to the Chinese Government, but we doubt that the missionary influence, which is very great in Europe and America vill allow it.

IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD .- We have seen hosts of letters from people who have received great banefit from the use of Clarke's Blood Mixture. It cannot be too highly estimated, for it cleanses and clears the blood from all imparities.' Mr Rennie would tell them that, although he had seen the man twice before, he never authorized him to sign any cheques in his name. At 5 p.m. on the day in question, the prisoner went to a tailor's shop in Queon's Road (Ah Men, Hing Cheong and Co.), accompanied by a friend, and purchased ity :some clothing. He said he had no money just then to pay for the goods, but he would write out a cheque for the amount. He produced a cheque book, and wrote out a cheque for $500, signing the name of A. H. Rennic. Fortunately, detectives were on the track of the prisoner and his friend, and, whilst prisoner was filling out the cheque. one of them entered the shop and arrested prisoner's companion. A second detective arrested the prisoner at the door. At the Police station, prisoner was searched, and a number of pieces of paper, etc., [were among his belongings. The prisoner, when the constable's back was turned, grabbed some of this and put it into his mouth. piece of the paper was rescued found to be the part of the cheque bearing the forged signature. The story of the prisoner was that he came Honolulu seeking employment as electrical ougineer, and was after the contract for the electric lighting of the Central Market. There was no doubt that he went,
